DISTRIBUTE COURSES

We'll provide you with your own dedicated Learning Portal.

Easily add your logo to it and provide exclusive access to your trainees so they can login and see all the courses assigned to them.

It's all FREE, just for having purchased your courses.

Coggno delivers corporate and compliance courses when you need it, just as you need it. There are 1,000s of courses to choose from.

Two Branded Training Platforms (LMS) You Can Choose From:

Course/Training Library

Your own training portal to brand and create multiple groups of trainees. Invite them via email or upload spreadsheets of trainees. Each trainee will create their own credentials and access the training at their convenience.

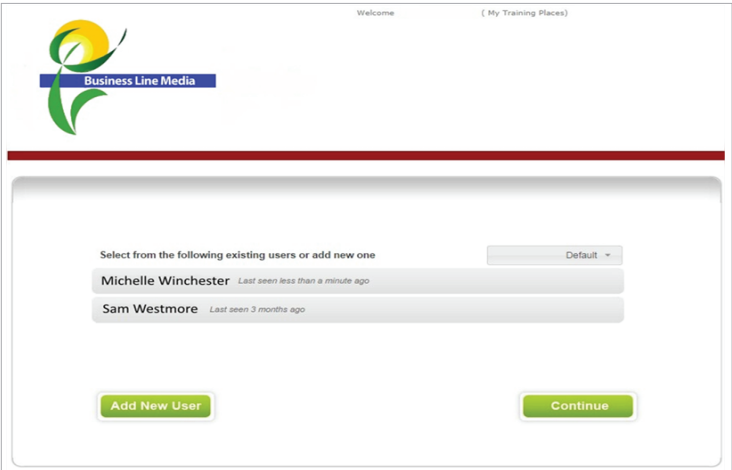

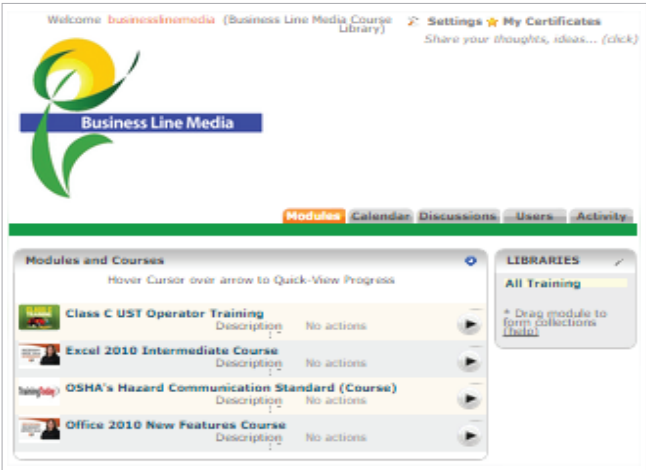

Best for companies whose employees have corporate email addresses.

Training Place/Kiosk

The simplest way to distribute training to your staff. Employees share access, find their name and start training. You can create a secure administrative account as well to track results.

Best for companies with temporary, part-time, or transient staff who don't have access to computers or corporate email addresses.

At Coggnio.com select from 1,000's of relevant compliance and corporate training courses. Instantly deliver them to your staff. Select who gets which courses, then view and track results.

CERTIFICATION

Manage compliance of your employees with auto-emails to you with their certificates as well as ability to download a copy from your administrative page and your employees' accounts.

My Certificates

This page allows you to download certificates of completed training that you've earned. You will receive a copy of any certificates that you've earned in email, but if you lost it or you have not received it for some reason you can always come back here to download them.

If your name appears to be wrong on the certificates you can correct it by updating your contact information under "Settings" menu.

Note It may take a few hours after you've completed your training and the certificate is issued. Please allow this time for processing.
